3 other contestants were no show!!

When I got home a had an email from Tauroa Area School to say the Natalie couldnt get away from Auckland in time.

Once agian the speeches were very good and when Pat Elrich gave their summing up, mentioned that this was a split decision for the first time that they could remembers.

The improptu speach was “Has modern technology removed our privacy?”

We got opposing views from both speakers which was interesting.

The winner by the narrowest of margins was Annemieke

Thanks to all the members for helping with the night and for the supper. In spite of the small contingent of speekers the night went off well and once agian was a rewarding evening.

Judges were, Tony Savage from WRMK Lawyers who are our sponsors.

Pat Elrich who was the head Judge

A big thank you to them.
