Announcements:

- Gail has booked us in to help with Blood Tests on 4 October
- Another Octagon Theatre production – “Side Effects” Mike is going to book in 7 Aug for the Club.
- Subs are now due for the year -$150
- Roger reported back that 175 Probus Clubs have joined “Probus NZ Inc” and if 75% of all clubs join up then they will be a legal entity.
- Bill mentioned that as power users we are all welcome to join in North powers meeting on 31 July at ASB stadium, finger food provided.
- Reminder that on 30 July we are having dinner at Asahi Japanese restaurant. (5th Wednesday of the month) - Give numbers to Mike.
- Speech contest is rolling along, Peter is contacting the local schools and Andrew is following up with the Clubs organising the Zones semi finals.
- It was a surprise to see Peter B at the lunch meeting, he has pulled the plug and retired and so we will see him regularly from now on.

Club history

We spent 30mins going through a couple of boxes of memorabilia and history which got the older members reminiscing. Lots of photos & books were taken by members and some bits were burnt.

We still have plenty of boxes at Lloyd’s place ready for collating into a history book for the Club. We have many old photos that have been suggested be given to the library and Rotary HQ. Photos as far back as the 1920’s.
