One minute notices

-Red puppy appeal on Friday 28th March outside the library, if you can spare some time let Peter M know.

-Science Extravaganza is on again, calling for Students and helpers. Murray Neighbour is asking for someone to run this event from next year.

-Andrew has suggested that each week duties will be carried out by one person. ie for lunch meetings, raffle and parting thought, and for evening meetings, raffle, parting thought and thanking the speaker. Hosting will still be a different person as that duty requires a bit more attention. Everyone was happy with the idea.
