One minute notices

- Rex Morris - gave us a run down on the Bernie Bowden Trust Project, a Nurse and a Doctor both from the Emergency Room at Rarotonga Hospital are coming down in Mid-April. There was some discussion about them sharing the room at the hospital as it was not clear whether the Doctor was male or female. This could impact on the cost of Accommodation. The issue of taking some money from the McCoy Trust to help with any funding shortfall was also discussed.
- Bill Rossiter, gave us a short insight into the Bird Recovery Centre and it's suitability for funding from the McCoy Trust, 3 other charities were bought up as being suitable these were, The Quarry Gardens, Surf Lifesaving, Seats on the Hihiaua Peninsular walkway. There were some others, as well. Peter M and Bill Rossiter will look at this with some urgency and see which one would be most suitable.

Peter Bayne introduced the speaker Steve Hayward and his talk on the Artists Collaboration week held recently.

Steve spoke about artists from all over the world getting together and collaborating (brainstorming) and coming up with some unique ideas. Steve was very positive with the initiative and has helped his business think outside the square.
